

Lehi Public Librarians

On the eighth of February 1910, the Lehi Public Library which consisted of all books from the Four Ward Libraries opened its doors in the Senate Saloon building at 169 West Main. Books were so few and outdated that the local newspaper called the library “Almost a Joke”. Addie Winn Rodeback became Lehi’s first public librarian.

1910-11	Addie Winn Rodeback
1911-1920	Martha S. Bushman
1920-24	Sylvia Bushman
1924	Julia Bushman
1924-40	Idella Bone
1940-68	Gudrun Wathen
1968-1978	Edna Swain
1978-2004	Janeen N. Watkins
2004-present	Kristy Seeley